A Call to Care

If you've ever been a caretaker for a loved one you know all about stress—and the strain it can be on everyone.

That's why our Joni and Friends Family Retreats are so important in the lives of those caring for a disabled loved one. It's five days of fun and spiritual refreshment for the entire family. And we make it happen through volunteers!

No training? No problem!

You don't have to be a professional care-giver—we'll show you how you can help in ways you never imagined! And like so many life adventures, when you give to someone else—the gift you get back is huge.

At a Joni and Friends Family Retreat—families are showered with Christian love and acceptance. Little wonder so many open their hearts to receive Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. Be a part of the hope and blessing!

“ Sure, I was nervous at first, but this week I've learned so much more from Kevin that anything I could have possibly given him. This is what Christian love is all about!

-Josh McCoy, volunteer ”

How can I possibly help? (So glad you asked!)

In your community, there are hundreds of disabled children, adults and their families who need the touch only Jesus can bring. Many of these families haven't had a respite in years. Many are in your church.

Help us get the word out about our season of Family Retreats—ask for volunteers and be a volunteer yourself.

Radio Stations

Whether you do any or all of these suggestions—pray with us for God to use this time to make an eternal difference in the life of a person with a disability. It'll change their life. It'll change yours!
