

The Drop Box Social Media

Thank you for supporting The Drop Box documentary from Pine Creek Entertainment in association with Focus on the Family and Kindred Image. Below you'll find suggestions for your social media channels. However, please feel free to edit for your audiences.

Social Media Presences:

The Film:

Facebook: www.facebook.com/thedropboxfilm

Twitter: <http://twitter.com/thedropboxfilm>

Instagram: <http://instagram.com/thedropboxfilm>

Website: www.thedropboxfilm.com

Official hashtag: #TheDropBox

Focus On The Family:

Facebook: www.facebook.com/FocusontheFamily

Twitter: <http://twitter.com/focusfamily>

Instagram: <http://instagram.com/focusfamily>

Website: www.focusonthefamily.com

General messaging:

The Drop Box is in theaters March 3, 4 & 5, 2015

Film tag line: "Don't throw them away, bring them here."

Main Message: Although not everyone is called to adopt, but everyone is called to care orphans.
A portion of the film's proceeds go to support Pastor Lee's ministry.

By attending the special in-theater engagement of The Drop Box, you're not just watching a powerful and redemptive story played out on the big screen.

You're also joining a global movement to protect and promote the dignity of human life, and to raise awareness of the plight of orphans worldwide.

Film Overview

The Drop Box is the real-life account of one small group of Christ-followers, in one corner of the world, who have sacrificed everything in order to care for the orphans in their midst.

This is also a story of hope, a celebration of the reality that every human life is sacred and worthy of love.

This limited screening in cinemas will include a recorded panel discussion featuring director Brian Ivie, musician Steven Curtis Chapman, and several other experts involved in the arena of adoption and orphan care.

Quotes & Scripture to use in Social

Brian Ivie – Director of the Film

“Through this movie, we’re hoping that people would see more than Christians working on behalf of orphans. We’re hoping that people would see a God who has always and will always love the broken and the lost.”

“Through this movie, I’m hoping that audiences would see what God’s love is like. Because this documentary, more than anything else, is a love letter from The Father to the lost and lonely.”

Scripture (ESV):

Psalms 27:10 “For my father and my mother have forsaken me, but the Lord will take me in.”

Psalms 139:13,15 “For you formed my inward parts; you knitted me together in my mother's womb. My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret, intricately woven in the depths of the earth.”

Psalms 68:15 “Father of the fatherless and protector of widows is God in his holy habitation.”

Deuteronomy 10:15a “He executes justice for the fatherless and the widow...”

James 1:27 “Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world.”

Social Media Posts:

1. Do you believe in #hope?
We'd love for you to spread the word to your friends to see #TheDropBox in theaters in March 3, 4 & 5, 2015. Check to see if theaters are showing the film near you and get your tickets: <http://bit.ly/DropBox03>
2. Have you considered adoption?
Steven Curtis and Mary Beth Chapman have been advocates of adoption for many years. However, their journey through adopting was one filled with questions, fear and uncertainties. Read on to see how they walked through tough times and what they learned about themselves and God along the way:<http://goo.gl/TCj6Y3>
3. Are you looking to serve your community?
Consider wrapping around an adoptive family. Many adoptive families feel the same tensions that any growing family experiences, not to mention the added stress of language barriers, previous abuse and neglect their children may have experienced, and other unique challenges. They need the support of their extended families, friends, and churches.

Here are 4 ways you can “W.R.A.P.” around the adoptive and foster families in your community: <http://goo.gl/FPIB3j>

4. Do you read your local newspaper?
In June 2011, John M. Glionna wrote about Pastor Lee Jong-rak and his baby box in Seoul, South Korea. The story he told caught the eye of student filmmaker Brian Ivie and sent him and his friends down a life changing path. If you haven't had a chance to read that original article, check it out:<http://goo.gl/3qMZCB>

5. Do you want to impact your world?

Join a global movement to protect and promote the dignity of human life, and to raise awareness of the plight of orphans worldwide. Find resources designed to help you raise awareness about #TheDropBox and Pastor Lee's powerful story: www.thedropboxfilm.com/resources.

6. Do you have your tickets for #TheDropBox?

Bound4LIFE International wrote a wonderful piece on The Drop Box film. We're so thankful for people who have taken the time to share this story and encourage their friends to see it in theaters March 3, 4 & 5. <http://goo.gl/pSz0At>

7. Do you have questions about #adoption?

We're not all called to adopt, but we are all called to help orphans. As conversation around adoption increases, there are certain things we need to keep in mind when we talk about helping children who need forever families. Read more: <http://goo.gl/pnwelF>